Dear Mr. Hearst:

This is simply a follow up to my previous letter congratulating you on your recognition by the Iowa Arts Council. I just wanted to let you know how very proud I am that a resident of the Third District is being so honored.

Your contribution to the fine arts in Iowa, through your poetry and short stories, has been tremendous, not only in quantity, but also, and more importantly, in quality. Already many national magazines have recognized your talents by publishing your works. It is high time Iowa paid you tribute.

Certainly you deserve the Iowa Arts Council award for Literature for opening up new worlds and ideas to the people of our state through your skillful use of words and your work in our schools.

Again, congratulations. All of Iowa can be proud of your achievements.

Sincerely,

Charles E. Grassley
Member of Congress
